5.0 New Business

5.1 Executive Director Update

- a. Project Red
 - An annual initiative that ASSCA staff run.
 - With the help of the student success advisor to identify of students who are in need.
 - Kelbert is going to make project red happen.

Counsel's job is to spread the word out to students and make sure people are aware of it.

b. Cougars Hockey

The women's hockey team won the national championship last year and on the 26th of November they are revelling their banner at the Sportsplex.

Blair has showed intreated in running an event for this game with the help from Richardson & Nault.

Blair has reached out to the Tavern to put something together after the game for students who want to attend. A discount on beer and food is possible.

Richardson asked if there was going to be food at this events for students. Paul let them know that due to their being no canteen, food wasn't an option to sell.

Blair asked if wanted to find out why students aren't attending these games? Richardson stated that he believes that transportation and advertising is the issues. Blakely agreed stating that there is not enough advertising as many students don't even know thye get into these games for free.

Wowk suggested the idea of giving away popcorn at the event. Counsell members agreed that popcorn was a good idea.

Blair confirmed that any ACC student could attend the event planned afterword's, not just those that attend the hockey game? Paul agreed with that. College and Karley Woods are going to advertise this event.

c. LECTT Furniture

There is a big event happening at the north hill campus and they would like to replace the furniture in the cube area. The college has offered to pay for it.

Teichroeb asked Oseni if he ever notices students using this area. He said yes.

Richardson also stated that he sees people sitting there in the morning and at lunch time.

Oseni agreed that the furniture could be updated.

Counsell all agreed that it could be updated but not to choose a light color.

NOTE: Kelbert to Derek to let him know counsel agrees to the new furniture but to not pick light colors as they will get damaged easier.
